1

For about one minute,
with eyes closed,
let your thoughts flow as they will.

Recall the room you are in a few times.
Then open your eyes.

2

For about one minute,
with eyes closed,
let your thoughts flow as they will,

Recall the room a few times
thinking the word "Room".
Then open your eyes.

3

In the same easy way,
recall yourself,
thinking your name.

After a minute or so,
open your eyes.

This time, recall yourself,
thinking the phrase "I am".

After a minute or so,
open your eyes.

5

Go two minutes
recalling the phrase "I am",
letting thoughts flow easily.

Open your eyes after two minutes.

This time, go about five minutes
recalling the phrase "I am"
every few moments,
without reciting the phrase
precisely.

Just recall the phrase as you recalled the room and yourself.

If you feel gentle and easy, go on.
Otherwise, return one time to card
#4 and proceed from there.

Take is easy.
Recalling is not a mental drill.
It happens naturally each time you remember that you are meditating.

8

Now meditate for 15 minutes recalling the phrase "I am" every few moments, letting thoughts flow easily.

Time this at 15 minutes, but do not worry about the time.

~ after 15-minutes of meditation ~

Close your eyes again
for a couple of minutes.

Come out gradually.
Think about whatever you like.

10

If you feel easy and refreshed, you have correctly meditated.

Return to the steps in the Guide. Make notes in your journal, but do not spend more than 15 minutes doing that today.

11

Meditate for 20 minutes twice a day during the course.

Schedule it so that it is: not right after a meal and not just before sleeping

Do Lesson Four tomorrow.
